Elba High's Aimee Senn named Coffee County Good Citizen

Yuri Castillo receives Geneva County award

The National Society Daughters of the American Revolution John Coffee Chapter held its annual Good Citizen's Reception recently to honor the Good Citizens selected from seniors attending the Coffee County and Geneva County High Schools.

Aimee Elizabeth Senn from Elba High School was designated as the Good Citizen from Coffee County, and Yuri Castillo from Geneva County High School was selected as the Good Citizen from Geneva County.

Created in 1934, this award recognizes and rewards individuals who possess the qualities of dependability, service, leadership and patriotism in their homes, schools and communities. These students were selected by their teachers and peers because they demonstrated these qualities to an outstanding degree.

Each year the John Coffee DAR Good Citizen's Award and Scholarship Contest Chair, Liz Barton, works with the school counselors from the five high schools in Coffee County and this year with the counselors from the Geneva County High Schools who had three high schools competing this year. From the entries, one is selected from Coffee County and for the first time, one was selected from Geneva County.

The two winner's packets were submitted to the State DAR Good Citizen's Chair to be judged at the state level. Each winner is presented with a certificate, a Good Citizen's Pin and the two winners were presented with a $100 scholarship check.

Each package submitted from the school's selections included a detailed package on the individual's overall accomplishments and an essay answering the question - "How do the qualities of a good citizen (dependability, service, leadership and patriotism) help support our nation?"

Information on each Good Citizen from the competing schools is listed below:

Elba High School's

Aimee Elizabeth Senn is the daughter of Johnny and Melanie Senn.

“You can’t have everything. Where would you put it?” – Steven Wright

Up in Valley, Alabama an 82-year-old woman was recently arrested for nonpayment of some $60 or $80 of trash fees. Reading the history on her continued problems and court appearances during the last several years we can’t side with the community citizens who are up in arms over her arrest. She had been personally contacted, phone calls made, and door hangers left on her door, but was ignoring them all, plus not showing up for court after being summoned by the court. If that were the norm, why should Elba citizens pay these required garbage fees if they (we) took a notion to not pay? She may have a long running beef with city hall or the garbage crew, but unfortunately someone has to pay for our government services in Valley, Chicago or Elba!

Anyone who has visited Colorado Springs, Colorado either when at Ft Carson on Army duty, with NATO forces in Cheyenne Mountain, Air Force Academy, the long established small local women’s college, or just visiting the community, knows the beauty of the area. That image was recently tarnished by a mass shooting at a gay bar. Apparently the community is rallying around the LGBTQ community. A Colorado Springs male singing group that bills itself as a LGBTQ choir has scheduled a series of three pre-Christmas performances in the town and all three performances will be before an already sold-out audience! While all the residents would not identify as being LGBTQ members, many of them are embarrassed, and surely frightened, at their delightful community being the location of a mass shooting.

Numerous news outlets are reporting that former president Donald Trump openly suggested that the U S Constitution be ignored in relationship with the 2020 elections! Now what the context of that statement was, we don’t know but it is scary. We are kinda proud of the long standing, much-tested U. S. Constitution and what it stands for, so . . . don’t mess with it! Modifications are necessary from time to time as society changes but to just completely ignore it is – well it would be a disaster to the future of America. To their credit, national officials of both the Republican and the Democrat parties spoke out strongly in opposition to such an idea. Having voiced those thoughts, we have a nagging thought that it might have been by Trump’s design . . . to get publicity and he struggles to stay on top politically. We recall the late Governor Jim Folsom saying, “Say what you want to about me, but spell my name right.”

On a personal note, health officials have announced “A study found that an Alzheimer’s drug slows decline but may have serious side effects.” We read lots of stuff about Alzheimer’s, due to losing our life mate to the ‘stuff’ so that headline perked our interest. However, with the only ‘slight’ slowing of progress and “possible” extreme side effects we probably would not have stepped forward and asked for that treatment to be administered to Heddy. The anguish of watching her decline was bad enough without feeling guilty for adding in induced serious side effects.

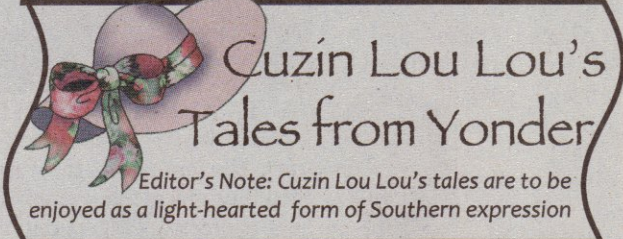

Annual Veterans Appreciation Hunt...

PARTICIPATING IN OPP CHRISTMAS PARADE...

Cuzin Lou Lou and the Yonder Gang took a ride earlier this week in Yonder's Christmas Parade using Lou 2 as their mode of transportation. From photos Lou Lou saw after the parade, the 'ole girl looked pretty good as it moved through the streets with the gang waving and wishing a "Merry Christmas" to the parade watchers. However, the adventure did not come without a few funny moments for the gang!

With Lou Lou driving, Papa sat in the passenger seat, which meant Sister got to occupy the backseat of the Jeep. She did pretty good climbing in since the top was off for the parade, but the 'getting out' of Lou 2 proved a bit more interesting!

Of course, only minutes after the gang took their spot in the parade line-up waiting for the event to begin, Sister announced she need to go to the bathroom! With nowhere open nearby with a bathroom, Lou Lou gave Sister the "oh well, you gotta hold it" speech.

Sister managed to do just that but it did not stop her from whining a time or two about the "need to go" increasing.

The funniest moment came when it was time for Sister to exit Lou 2 after the parade. Instead of climbing out the same way she climbed in, she decided to come out through the front. However, she chose an unconventional way of doing that, and it ended with her falling back into the seat with her legs straight up in the air! There is photo evidence of this Sister mishap, but Lou Lou's life has been threatened if that photo surfaces anywhere. So, it will be a while before it can be shared...Sister will soon forget, and that is when Lou Lou will strike!!

Until next time...God Bless and Keep Smiling!

To Whom It May Concern,

Just a note to whomever made themselves welcome to the $250.00 cash that was left in my truck on December 1, 2022 at the Elba Food Giant [Elba Marketplace]. I hope you use the money well, as that was Christmas money for my grandchildren.

If you had been in that great need for help, I would have gladly helped, if you had only asked.

Merry Christmas!

National Impaired Driving Prevention Month

For over 40 years, we have recognized National Impaired Driving Prevention Month in the month of December. We use this month to help raise awareness that impaired driving can be not just dangerous but sometimes deadly. We also use this month to consider ways to protect ourselves and those we love.

As we enter the holiday season, more people are venturing out to attend celebrations, happy hours and gatherings with family and friends. At many events, alcohol or other substances may be used. While this isn't necessarily a bad thing, if people choose to use alcohol or other substances and then get behind the wheel of a car, the results can be disastrous - anything from a ticket to jail time to a deadly accident. None of those are worth the risk! Every year over 10,000 people die from drunk driving related crashes and during the week between Christmas and New Year's Day alone over 200 people die from alcohol related crashes.

The good news is, there are ways to help prevent many of these accidents.

Educate yourself and others on the risks of impaired driving. Know there are no shortcuts to sobering up such as drinking coffee. Even if you wait an hour or so after your last drink there may still be alcohol in your system.

Have conversations ahead of time so you can avoid a more awkward exchange "in the moment."

Set specific expectations for safe choices at different events.

Encourage ride-sharing or if you are hosting a party, make sure to check with guests and see if they need a ride home.

If you have teenagers, talk to them about the dangers of impaired driving and getting into the car with someone who has used alcohol or other substances.

Offer to drive your teen to and from parties or coordinate with other parents. Even if your teen doesn't drink, they may still feel pressured to get a ride with someone who has been drinking.

If we all work together we can make this holiday season a safe and joyous time for all.

CHURCH NEWS

PASTOR'S CORNER

by Paul Jackson, Pastor

Covenant Community Church

This Christmas, will you worship God?

The birth of Jesus was not only "good news of great joy," it was an occasion that seemed to naturally elicit the response of worship from everyone who heard about it. Let's start with the angels:

"Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying, 'Glory to God in the highest, and on earth, peace to men on whom his favor rests'" (Luke 2:13-14). The very first Christmas caused the angels of heaven to worship God.

What about the Shepherds? After finding the baby Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, "The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen..." (Luke 2:20). The shepherds worshipped God on this very first Christmas.

Let's not forget the wise men from the east. Matthew tells us about them. They followed the star to the house where Jesus was lying in the manger, and when they saw "the child with his mother Mary...they bowed down and worshipped him" (Matthew 2:11). Wise men worshipped Jesus.

The angels of heaven, the shepherds, the wise men from the east, they all worshipped. Don't miss this.

But there's another person in this story who needs mentioning, and that's Mary. Can you imagine being told that you are going to become pregnant by the Holy Spirit? Mary was likely just a young teen girl. I can only imagine what she must be thinking.

Follow the sequence: An angel appears to Mary and tells her she is "highly favored" by God (Luke 2:28). These words "greatly trouble" her we're told. (If she's greatly troubled by that, can you imagine what she must think when she hears the rest of the story?) She's simply told to "not be afraid" (vs. 30). But "How could this be?" she wants to know (vs.34). Well, "Nothing is impossible with God," she's told (vs. 37).

I never cease to be amazed at this part of the story of Jesus' birth. How did Mary respond? "I am the Lord's servant," she answered. May it be to me as you have said" (Luke 2:38). She also breaks out in a song of praise to God: "And Mary said: 'My soul glorifies the Lord and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior...'" (Luke 2:46-47). Why not take a moment and read the entire song (Luke 2:46-55)? Mary worships God.

This Christmas season, amidst all the hubbub and parties, don't forget to worship. Don't forget to praise God for the amazing thing he has done. He came to us as a helpless baby. He entered this world for us.

"For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life" (John 3:16).

Thanks, But No Thanks!

It's often very hard to find the perfect Christmas gift! Even so, the worst Christmas gifts are relatively well established in cultural tradition. For example, such tradition tells us that fruitcake is the proverbial unwanted holiday present. Not far behind is the so-called ugly Christmas sweater. It is probably best not to give food that will never be eaten or clothes that will never be worn! Common sense also can spot a bad gift idea. Does a loved one really need to be reminded of neglected housework by the gift of a vacuum cleaner? Does a friend need a hint to lose weight by the gift of a gym membership? Would a gift of deodorant be the best way to tell a coworker that he or she has a problem in that area? An insult wrapped up in a festive box and adorned with a ribbon is still an insult! When we give gifts, we

Faculty vs Seniors Volleyball Game

by Heidi Smith & Emily Mosley

The Faculty v. Seniors volleyball game took place Friday, Nov., 18th.

Students from the Senior class competed against faculty members in the game that helped raise money to purchase new volleyballs and equipment for next season. The game has been a great fundraiser for the EHS Volleyball Team for the last few years, and it is a fun way to wrap up the season.

The teachers were undefeated in the matchup until this year. Some may say it was because the faculty team was missing a few key players as Coach Austin Johnson was unable to play due to an injury and Coach Jesse Luker was also unable to play.

Girls Volleyball Coach Melissa Mularz said she normally doesn't allow the volleyball players to participate so the playing field is level.

"Normally I don't let senior volleyball girls play in the match, only their senior classmates, but due to not many seniors being able to participate, I allowed three of the senior volleyball players to play. So, the seniors did have some experience and know-how on their side."

EHS students enjoyed watching the game. It was a good match and something fun to do before releasing for Thanksgiving Break.

Views From The Pressbox

Our grandson Lawson was at the house one afternoon last week and seemed a little disappointed that we had yet to put up our Christmas tree, and of course had no presents wrapped. His Nanny assured him she would wrap some presents over the weekend and put up the tree as soon as possible, and I know he will hold her to her promise since this is his favorite time of the year.

For what it is worth....

*** Elba High tipped off its regular season last week in basketball and its was a pretty good week as all three teams logged wins during a busy week of action. The Tigers bounced back after losing its third straight of the young season early in the week to defeat Samson and New Brockton for a pair of solid road wins. The Tigers have a basketball team filled with football players wearing sneakers, but they have ‘Tiger Pride’ and showed that in both wins as they overcame struggles to emerge with victories. Elba may not be the most talented team on the court many nights during the season, but if they play as hard as they did last week it could be a surprise season for the team and its fans. The Lady Tigers opened their season with a disappointing 1-2 record for the week, but did close the week’s action with a win over county-rival New Brockton and have already found out they must play their best to have a chance to win no matter the opponent. The Tiger junior varsity won all three games last week and all three were nail-biters that weren’t decided until the final seconds as it gave its fans their monies worth. I know the season is only a week old and there are a lot of games left on the schedule. However, after one week it looks like Elba may be better than most expected and should only get better.

*** It was also a busy week for teams in the areas as fans got out of the weather and into the gyms. In boys action, Brantley tipped off its season with a high-scoring win over Pleasant Home and no doubt has its sights set on a return trip to Birmingham, while New Brockton stumbled out of the gates with a loss at home, Kinston continued to play hard and get better, and Zion Chapel roved once again it was going to play hard for all thirty-two minutes every night out. Over with the girls, New Brockton snapped its 68-game losing streak and is on the way back to respectability, while Brantley was much better than expected in a big opening win, Kinston played hard against superior opponents and Zion Chapel continued to improve every night out.

*** The ‘Super 7’ high school football playoffs were held last week at Auburn and it was quite a week as the state champs in all classes made it clear they were the best teams as none of the seven games were even close. Summing up the state finals on a nutshell .... (7A) Thompson won its fourth state title with a 49-24 win over Auburn as eighth grade quarterback Trent Seaborn competed 12 of 14 passes for 207 yards and five touchdowns. (6A) Saraland rushed for 358 yards and super sophomore Ryan Williams scored five touchdowns in a 38-17 win over Mt. Brook. (5A) Ramsey’s Ashton Austin rushed for almost 300 yards and five touchdowns as Ramsey downed Charles Henderson 41-20. (4A) Andalusia coach Trent Taylor proved hard work and patience does indeed pay as he got his first state title in his 35th year coaching and 68th playoff game as his Bulldogs defeated Cherokee County 28-7. (3A) St. James claimed its first state title ever in football with a 45-28 win over Piedmont as junior quarterback KJ Jackson passed for 351 yards and five touchdowns. (2A) Fyffe held the ball for almost 35 minutes and Brodie Hicks rushed for 235 yards on 45 carries and scored five touchdowns as it claimed its sixth state title in the last nine years. (1A) Leroy quarterback Brayden Huebner rushed for five touchdowns and Pickens County threw three pass interceptions and was penalized for 131 yards as the Bears posted a 42-20 win. Three teams made the most of re-classification as Andalusia, Fyffe and Leroy all claimed state titles after moving down in class.

*** The powers to be at Auburn University ignored the wishes of the Cadillac Williams Fan Club last week in choosing Hugh Freeze as its next head football coach. While Freeze came to the plains after a four-year stay at Liberty, the new head coach is best known for resigning at Ole Miss after being tied to the use of a school cell phone to an escort service and getting the Rebels put on NCAA probation. Freeze will reportedly make $6.5 million a year to lead the Tigers and it will also cost Auburn $3 million to get the coach out of his contract at Liberty. Many so-called ‘big name’ national sports reporters acted surprised that Auburn would hire a coach with so much baggage after it spent over $30 million to get rid of its last two head coaches, and even suggested that all the folks at Auburn cared about was winning. No crap! College football is all about money and Freeze will bring with him no more baggage than did basketball coach Bruce Pearl when he was hired ears back. If Freeze can keep his nose clean he will be just as successful as Pearl and put Auburn back on the map as a football power.

*** While I honestly believe the expansion to a 12-team playoff in the College Football Playoff is more about TV money, it will be fun for the fans and give many more teams a chance to play for a national title. The new 12-team playoff will begin in the 2024 season with the top four seeds being awarded to the highest ranked conference champions. The remaining two conference champions, which in most years will be the lowest ranked Power 5 champion and the highest ranked Group of 5 (AAC, Conference USA, mid-American, Mountain West and Sun Belt) champion, will also get playoff spots, which means state schools such as UAB, South Alabama, Troy and Jacksonville State will all have a chance at winning a national title if they win their conference and are deemed by the committee to be one of the six best conference champs. The remaining six spots will go to at-large teams based on the highest ranked teams that are not conference champs, such as Alabama, Tennessee and possibly LSU. First round byes would go to the top four teams, with the remaining eight teams playing an opening round game at the home field of the highest ranked team. The four winners would then advance to play the top four teams that received byes at bowl games, followed by semifinal games and eventually a championship game. The format will change in 2026 with the approval of a new TV deal, which is expected to include moving the start of the season up one week in August and moving the second round games to the home field of the highest seeded team. If the new format was in place this season, Alabama would host Utah in the opening round and if it won, the Tide would then play TCU in the second round. The new world of college football may still be a year away, but it will be here before you know it!

Grab two big wins

Tigers dribble past Samson and ‘Brockton

The Elba Tigers had a busy week on the hardwood with three games in four days and made the most of their time on the court as they posted wins over Samson 58-49 and New Brockton 60-44, while losing to Geneva 59-44.

Following are recaps of all three games:

Geneva 59 Elba 44

The Elba Tigers drained eight shots from behind the three-point line last Monday night in their home opener against Geneva, but connected on only 4 of 14 shots from the foul line and slipped to 0-3 on the season with a 59-44 loss to the Panthers.

Elba jumped out to an early 7-3 lead in the opening quarter behind the three-point shooting of Cameron Gray and Taylon Purvis, but cooled off late in the stanza and watched as Geneva snuck ahead 13-12 on a late three-pointer by Talan Johnson. The Panthers extended their lead to 20-12 midway through the second quarter as they began a parade to the free throw line, and while the Tigers did pull within 24-20 late in the quarter, Geneva regained command late and carried a 30-22 advantage in at the half.

Elba kept it close and trailed only 33-25 early in the third quarter after a three-pointer by Jacob Watkins. However, Geneva used an 8-0 run to push its lead to 43-27 and owned a 43-30 lead heading into the final stanza. The Panthers grabbed their biggest lead of the night at 50-33 midway through the final stanza and held off a late Elba rally to hand the Tigers the 59-44 defeat.

Taylon Purvis and Cameron Gray scored 9 points apiece to lead Elba, while also scoring for the Tigers were Jacob Watkins 7, JT Coleman 6, Cody Gray 5, Ty Sieving 3, Brayden Johnson 3 and Jamal Siler 2. Bryson Barton led the Panthers with 14 points.

Elba 58 Samson 49

The Elba Tigers scored the final eight points of the first half to pull ahead and scored the final seven points of the second half to pull away last Tuesday night to post a wild 58-49 road win over the Samson Tigers.

Elba jumped out to an early 7-2 lead in the first quarter as JT Coleman poured in seven points in a two-minute span, and the Tigers lead grew to 19-11 early in the second quarter after a three-pointer by Cody Gray and a basket by Jamal Siler. Samson rallied midway through the stanza and pulled even at 19-19, but the Tigers regained command behind the play of Cameron Gray and Jacob Watkins and used an 8-0 run to close the quarter to carry a 27-19 lead in at the half.

Samson used a 5-0 run to pull within 27-24 early in the third quarter and got as close as 31-29 midway through the quarter, but a basket by Taylon Purvis slowed the rally and put the Tigers on top 35-31 with 2:33 left in the stanza. Samson went on another 6-0 run to grab a 37-35 lead late in the quarter, but the Tigers again rallied and pulled even at 37-37 heading into the final stanza on a basket by Jacob Watkins. Elba pulled ahead 41-38 early in the fourth quarter on a driving lay-up by JT Coleman and this time managed to remain in command until 1:46 remaining on the clock when Samson cut the lead to 49-48. A put back by Jamal Siler after a missed free throw pushed the Tigers lead to 51-48, and while Samson did pull within 51-49 with 1:02 left, a baseline jumper in traffic by Ty Sieving sparked a 7-0 run as Elba held on to post the wild 58-49 win.

Elba, which was whistled for 23 fouls and had two starters foul out, was led in scoring by JT Coleman with 16 points, while also scoring for the Tigers were Cody Gray 10, Jacob Watkins 8, Jamal Siler 8, Taylon Purvis 7, Ty Sieving 5 and Cameron Gray 4. Samson, which connected on only 14 of 35 free throws, was led by Coy Ingram with 28 points.

Elba 60 New Brockton 44

The Elba Tigers took charge in the second half to post an impressive 60-44 road win over the New Brockton Gamecocks, Thursday night at the Gamecock gym.

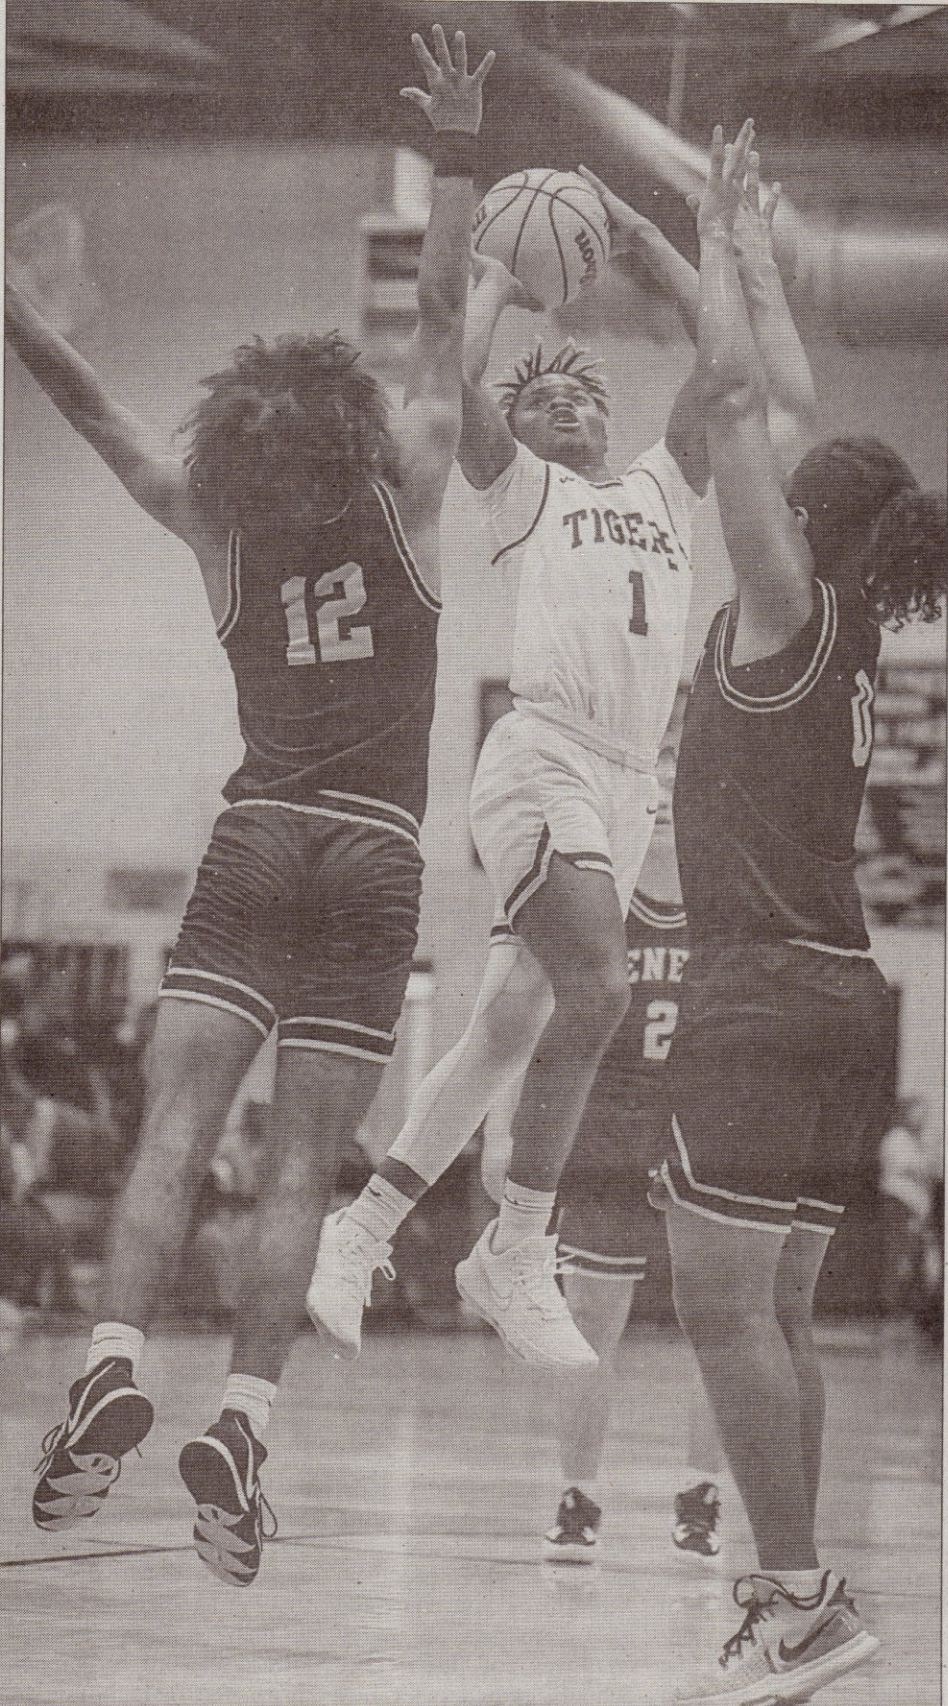

New Brockton came out on fire and behind the 14-point explosion by Yassiah Rousseau poured in 22 first quarter points to jump out to a 22-15 lead. Elba began to chip away at the Gamecocks lead in the second quarter and sparked by a three-pointer by Cody Gray went on an early 9-0 run to grab a 24-22 advantage. The two county rivals were tied at 29-29 at the half, but the Tigers Jamal Siler began to dominate play inside in the third quarter and scored eight points as Elba pulled out to a 46-37 lead. Rosseau regained his shooting touch in the fourth quarter and scored five points, but Elba’s JT Coleman and Cameron Gray both scored four points in the stanza and Ty Sieving added a lone three-pointer as the Tigers remained in command and claimed the big 60-44 win.

Cameron Gray scored 12 points and had 7 steals to lead Elba, while JT Coleman added 11 points, 10 rebounds, 7 assists and 5 steals; and, Jamal Siler added 11 points and 8 rebounds. Also scoring for Elba were Ty Sieving 9, Jacob Watkins 9, Cody Gray 4, Taylor Purvis 2 and Brayden Johnson 2. Yassiah Rousseau scored 22 points to lead the Gamecocks and Dallas Bourne added 10.

The Lady Tigers A'Lyric Whitfield scored six points in a two-minute span as Elba pulled within 29-15, but could get no closer as Geneva carried a 34-16 lead in at the half.

Geneva scored only nine points in the third quarter as the Elba defense stiffened, but the Lady Tigers only managed seven points of their own and trailed 43-23 heading into Samson's lead grew to 25-15 early in the third quarter and the hometown five took advantage of numerous Elba turnovers to take command midway through the stanza as its lead ballooned to 40-22 heading into the final stanza. Elba made a mild rally early in the fourth quarter behind the play of Ny'Asia McCollough and pulled within 42-28, but Samson never lost command and despite a 14-point fourth quarter explosion by Lady Tiger A'Lyric Whitfield easily held on to hand Elba the 54-41 defeat.
